

Kingsweston Centre @ Shirehampton

Literacy

Writing and following instructions.

Making and replying to invitations and posters to advertise the party.

Designing menus.

Writing reports about party events and captioning photos.

Writing - Checking work makes sense.
Using punctuation.

Reading - Developing comprehension skills.

Falcons

Can Party Food be Healthy?

Maths

Calculations – number skills and different methods: addition and subtraction. + -

Doubling and Halving. Counting in 2s, 5s, 10s – counting out cutlery or party food per person.

Geometry – Position and direction. Using directional language.

Statistics – surveys and making charts.
Surveys of favourite party food and games.

DT

Planning a party lunch. Designing a menu

Preparing healthy meals. Choosing and using equipment.

Designing decorations and party hats.

Wrapping presents.

PE

Swimming - water safety skills. Using a variety of strokes to travel through water safely and more controlled.

Cycling – Improving balance and stamina. Developing bike control and road safety.

Exercise and keeping fit.

PSHE

“Healthy Me.”

Knowing how to relax and have a healthy mind.
Healthy eating and keeping active.

Life Skills.

Sending/Replying to letters and invites.

Shopping/using money.

Homework

Survey – favourite food.

Science

Healthy eating – classifying food types.
Healthy food and unhealthy food.

Exercise. What happens to our body when we exercise?

Properties and uses of materials.