

Kingsweston Centre @ Shirehampton

Maths

Calculations

Addition, subtraction, multiplication and division skills using written methods.

Statistics

Collecting data to generate a range of graphs and tables.

Reading tables and graphs.

Diamond class

Can party food be healthy?

DT

Planning a party lunch. Designing a menu

Preparing healthy meals. Choosing and using equipment.

Literacy

Instructional writing

Identifying verbs and adverbs in writing. Using verbs and adverbs in writing and speech.

Making and replying to invitations and posters to advertise the party.

Designing menus.

Writing reports about party events and adding captions to photos.

PE

Daily fitness fun to improve our stamina.

Team games.

Parachute games.

Healthy eating.

Planning and hosting a celebration event

Science Healthy eating:

Identifying what our bodies need to stay healthy. Discussing healthy and unhealthy food and different food groups.

Investigate materials and their states.

How do materials change states?

Identify reversible and irreversible changes within materials.

SCIENCE WEEK – ENGINEERING FOCUS

PSHE – Jigsaw – Healthy Me

Knowing how to relax and have a healthy mind.

Healthy eating and keeping active.

Friendships.

Homework

Looking at food labels at home or in the supermarket. Discuss sugar, fat and salt content in favourite family foods. Identify healthy or less healthy foods we like to eat at home.